Welcome to Banbury BID's fortnightly newsletter.

We hope you had a lovely Christmas and new year, please keep checking your BID fortnightly newsletter as this is where we will advertise upcoming events and business opportunities alongside Facebook and Instagram.

Chinese New Year

Chinese New Year begins on the 20th of January and is the year of the Rabbit. It celebrates the beginning of the new year.

To celebrate Chinese new year we would like to invite 5 Chinese restaurants/takeaways to take part in a promotion we are running. Banbury Bid will provide fortune cookies with hidden messages that can include a promotion for you business which we will advertise on our social media pages.

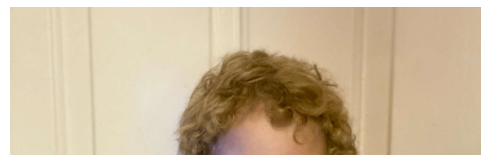

If you would like to be involved please email Kelly.

Banbury BID's Nutcracker Trail

Thank you to all the business that took part in Banbury BID's Nutcracker Trail. It has been a great success. The winners were drawn on Friday the 6th of January.

1st prize iPad mini - Jerzy Kozlowski

2nd prize £50 voucher to spend at the Light Banbury -Megan Darcey.

Counterfeit notes

Please be aware there have been reports of an increased use of fake £20 notes across the UK recently. Please remain vigilant with the notes that are handed to you.

Images of the new notes with the Kings portrait have also been unveiled and are expected to be put into circulation mid 2024 so there is nothing that businesses need to do right now

Any incidents of counterfeit vouchers or notes should be reported via DISC.

Upcoming promotions

If you have any upcoming promotions you would like us to advertise on social media please email Kelly who will arrange for this to be scheduled.
